Cortijo Puerto Llano is an old Andalucian farmhouse situated in the hills of Southern Spain, 15kms from Ronda in the province of Malaga.

The house stands on the site of a Roman settlement and 16th Century a convent, of which five of the original arches remain. The Cortijo has been restored and converted into a comfortable house. The current owners have taken great care to preserve the original rustic character of the farmhouse. However, modern amenities (like central heating) have been added. There are 5 double guest suites and 1 single with shower room. Beyond the courtyard is the swimming pool. The original convent arches overlook the pool and serve as a loggia. In the main house is a large kitchens dining room, spacious drawing room and sitting room.and 2 en-suite bedrooms.
