We take it for granted that you already know La Heredia with its cobblestone streets and coloured houses, the scent of bougainvillea and lemon trees, its enchanting squares with the sound of water in the fountains, the spectacular views of Africa, our coastline, the golf valley and the western mountains at sunset with pink shades in the sky... La Heredia is seductive, the local rustic style and the Andalucian pueblo atmosphere still conquers hearts - even on a rainy autumn day!

At this fantastic development we have villas with garden and swimming pool priced under the million €:
