A charming country rustic cortijo in the beautiful and breathtaking Las Alpujarras nature reserve, about 45 minutes from Granada in the mountains and other seaside towns surrounding the town of Motril. A good family holiday home with a large swimming pool of 17m x 10m surrounded by well maintained gardens.

From a superb enclosed courtyard with a 2 metre octagonal fountain, with all handmade Alizares ceramics, the house itself, of four bedrooms and 3 bathrooms (one bath, two showers), offers room for further reform. There is a fitted kitchen, open plan living/dining room, a conservatory and an open fireplace. Also an out building that could be converted into a little cottage. Presently being used as stables. It is all set in well maintained gardens and fruit trees with a 200 metre deep spring water well linked to the irrigation system.
