La Almona - an authentic old Spanish cortijo dating probably from the 1400's. The property includes the main residence, fountained courtyards, patios, spectacular swimming-pool, gardens, garage and parking bays, two self contained apartments and six holiday cottages with dedicated pool. La Almona is sold with sixteen hectares of land stretching down to the Guadalhorce River; clementine groves with drip irrigation, lemon, almond and olive trees. Viewing is highly recommended.

During the 1960's the property was extensively restored; its present owners since 1988 have made further substantial improvements. Set on a hilltop, La Almona is blessed with stunning surrounding views; it is within walking distance from El Choro village (international rock climbing destination) and railway station,...
